

Culinary Historians of New York presents

"A Celebration of Our Members II"

Wednesday, September 24, 2008

Once again, we will launch our season of culinary history programs with an evening of presentations by CHNY members. We'll start promptly at 6:30 with the annual business meeting and election of officers. Then at 7:00, we'll hear brief talks by several members about their recent books or research. Afterward, there will be a reception with book sales and signing and time for questions and conversations. This program is free for CHNY members.

The members giving presentations include Jesse Browner, "The Uncertain Hour" (his novel about ancient Rome; Bloomsbury, 2007); Marion Nestle, "Pet Food Politics: The Chihuahua in the Coal Mine" (University of California Press, September 2008); Jacqueline Newman, "Cooking from China's Fujian Province" (Hippocrene Books, August 2008); Lara Rabinovich, "Pastrami and the City: Romanian Jewish Immigrants in Early 20th Century New York"; Francine Segan, "Opera Lover's Cookbook" (Stewart, Tabori & Chang, 2006); and Pat Willard, "America Eats: On the Road with the WPA" (Bloomsbury, July 2008).
